

WISH WOMEN IN SEMICONDUCTOR HARDWARE

Date: October 1, 2025

Location: San Jose Convention Center

GSA WLI'S Technical Conference and Awards Ceremony is a unique event bringing together industry luminaries, entrepreneurs, and university STEM students. This event will showcase the changing face of technology interspersed with exciting individual and company awards. Join us in celebrating the women who have helped to break the glass ceiling and those who are following in their footsteps. Unlike other conferences, GSA WLI will not charge university students to participate. Join our industry in supporting gender parity.

WISH 2024 HIGHLIGHTS:

Over 800 attendees from around the world came to learn, network, and uplift each other
Visibility opportunities for women in the semiconductor industry: 33 speakers, 3 panel discussions

Technical paper and poster presenters: 28

Celebrating industry women for their achievements:

- Dr. Ann Kelleher, Intel Recipient of the Dr. Lisa Su Woman of Innovation Award
- Lyndsi Parker, Marvell, Recipient of the Rising Women in Semi Award
- Kamala Raghavan Sadagopan, Qualcomm, Recipient of the Female-Up and Comer Award
- AMD, Recipient of the Designing the Difference Award

WISH 2025 promises to be even bigger and more exciting. We plan to expand the conference to increase our in-person attendance to over 1,000 people.
